

10AM Stage 2 | Study Rooms

Tellin' Your Tales

Civil rights activist, world traveler, professional storyteller and teacher, Michael D. McCarty leads an exploration of "life tales" and how to tell them.

10AM and 12:30PM Stage 5 | Courtyard

Gemini Junction

Modern topics in traditionally-inspired song structures and instrumentation has made Gemini Junction an audience favorite.

10:30AM Stage 3 | Children's Area

Tales from Around the World

Storytellers Harlynn Geisler and Mary Holma enchant children and their caregivers with well-loved tales from a variety of cultures.

11AM Stage 1 | Community Room

Stories, Stories Everywhere

Discover and celebrate the human spirit in this concert highlighting stories with origins in unlikely places.

11AM to 3PM Stage 4 | Computer Lab

The Archive Channel

Celebrate the extraordinary in your life in a short radio interview with KSDS's Dave Drexler. For Festival participants, for a limited time.

12PM Stage 1 | Community Room

Kids Tell Stories

Storyteller-in-residence with Encinitas Union School District, Aunt Li-Anne's students from Paul Ecke and Park Dale Lane show off their "telling" chops. Followed by a kid's open mic.

12PM Stage 2 | Study Rooms

Real People, Real Stories: True Stories from Veterans

"The biggest hurdle for someone with a story that needs to be told is knowing where to begin." Justin Hudnall of So Say We All welcomes veterans Josh Callaway, Elizabeth Shink, and Steven Van Larr to the stage.

1PM Stage 1 | Community Room

Superheroes Old and New

Some of our favorite heroes have deep roots in cultures and traditions around the world. Uncover the ancient magic that lives on in today's "marvel" universe.

1PM Stage 2 | Study Rooms

Food Speak

What is the link between prohibition and fast food? Why did French chefs often name dishes after women? How did the invention of electricity increase the number of eggs you eat? Chef, storyteller and food historian Arlyn Hackett shares incredible tales that will impact what you feel about what we eat.

1PM Stage 3 | Children's Area

Storytelling Games

Everyone loves a great story; most of us enjoy a great game. Learn how these two great things can be great together with Linda King Pruitt!

2PM Stage 1 | Community Room

A Bouquet of Stories

Flower arranging and storytelling "vine" together as Nancy Armstrong of Twigs Encinitas joins our storytellers on stage to create a unique concert experience.

2PM Stage 2 | Study Rooms

Storytelling in Corrections

Michael D. McCarty, Linda King Pruitt, and Freedom Bailey-Ballentine describe their involvement in the revival of the Arts in Corrections (AIC) program and its impacts.

2PM Stage 3 | Children's Area

Stories for Kids

Children of all ages are sure to enjoy this special concert, featuring classic tales ingeniously told by Patti Christensen and Harlynn Geisler.

3PM Stage 1 | Community Room

"Your Turn" Open Mic

Open. Microphones. Yeah, you know. Come see and hear what the graduates from the 2018 Storytelling Institute can do!

3PM Stage 2 | Study Rooms

Bible Tales – Not Just Stories

Learn to tell these special stories that are Basic Instructions Before Leaving Earth! Uncover some tales designed to energize us for victorious living.

3:50 PM Stage 5 | Lobby

Opportunity Drawing

Each ticket purchased supports the Storytellers of San Diego, and opens up the possibility of you walking away with one or more of the fabulous prize packages donated by our generous local sponsors. Tickets on sale from 10 AM until 3:50 PM, when drawing begins. Best of luck!

4PM to 6PM Stage 1 | Community Room

Voices at the Water's Edge

This traditional headlining concert showcases our own Storytellers of San Diego and featured guests.

The 9th Annual

San Diego Storytelling Festival

Stories Everywhere

A stylized world map in a golden-brown color. Three curved arrows originate from the map: a purple arrow pointing to North America, a red arrow pointing to Europe, and an orange arrow pointing to Asia. The text "Stories Everywhere" is written in a green, bubbly font across the map.